

WHAT IS THE BODY CODE™?

The Body Code™ is an advanced wellness method developed by holistic chiropractor Dr. Bradley Nelson. It's built on the premise that true health comes from being balanced in 6 different ways:

ENERGIES

The Body Code™ uses simple energy work designed to remove potentially damaging emotional and mental energies.

CIRCUITRY

Circuitry systems like chakras, acupuncture meridians, energy circuits of the organs and glands, and the body/spirit connection.

TOXICITY

The Body Code™ is intended to identify and address possible harmful toxins that may not show up on traditional tests.

PATHOGENS

This process is designed to help identify potentially destructive, elusive pathogens so they can be corrected.

STRUCTURAL

The Body Code™ can help pinpoint imbalances in bones, organs, muscles, nerves, and connective tissues and gently correct them.

NUTRITIONAL

Lifestyle imbalances can be identified for areas like nutrient deficiencies, dehydration, activities, or the need for body work.

Users of The Body Code™ have reported getting help with*:

- Digestive trouble
- Bedwetting
- Hormonal issues
- Chronic discomfort
- Organ function
- Emotional distress
- Reliving bad experiences
- Fatigue
- Learning problems
- Joint problems
- Muscle soreness
- Night terrors
- Sleep issues
- Anxiousness
- Weight and food issues
- Sinus trouble
- And much more

IS YOUR BODY IN BALANCE?

One of the most important ideas behind holistic health and energy healing is that the human body has an incredible ability to bounce back. And that, with the right balance, your body can recover from all kinds of discomfort and disease.

However, imbalance may allow physical or emotional obstacles to build up over time.

Sadly, it seems that much of the population is in an unbalanced state in one way or another. Few of us would honestly claim to feel 100% well (physically, emotionally, and spiritually) 100% of the time.

But while imbalance is extremely common, it may also be extremely easy to resolve.

The Body Code™ can help you identify and correct imbalances in your body.

INSIDE A BODY CODE™ SESSION

We believe the subconscious mind is the ultimate intelligence, like a highly advanced computer system. Our premise is that it knows everything you need in order to be healthy and happy.

Body Code sessions are brief, simple, and non-invasive.

The Body Code™ is designed to get answers about your health directly from your subconscious.

It uses specific questioning, charts, and muscle testing (a form of biofeedback) to get those answers. Often, this helps us identify imbalances that, once resolved, may allow full health to return. We can then release those imbalances through magnetic energy and principles of ancient Chinese medicine. We may also identify what actions might be needed to restore balance.

THE BODY CODE™ COULD HELP YOU!

Due to the reported experiences of thousands, we believe The Body Code™ works because it allows us to find specific problems or imbalances and remove them. It's as simple as that.

WHERE DO I START?

You can get started by setting an appointment with a Certified Body Code Practitioner. Since sessions can be done remotely, location won't be an issue.
